Video with photos of the G2G Peer Advisor team and locations on U of T campus describing the Graduate Conflict Resolution Centre and the role of the G2G Peer Advisors:

Are you a grad student at U of T?

Have you experienced supervisor issues, imposter phenomenon, workplace conflicts, roommate issues? Feeling stuck? No issue is too small. The Graduate Conflict Resolution Centre (Grad CRC) can help.

What is the Grad CRC?

We provide informal and confidential conflict management support.

Who are we?

We're grad students just like you.

What do we do?

While we don't advocate, mediate or intervene, we do provide coaching, training and tri-campus outreach.

For more information including how we also support graduate faculty and staff visit gradcrc.utoronto.ca
